

This image is a scan of a full-page advertisement from the Chicago Tribune, dated January 1, 1865. The page is filled with dense text and several large, decorative illustrations of sewing machines and other products. Key sections include:

- WINTER CLOTHING AT GOSSETT: An advertisement for clothing, mentioning Shawls of every description, Woolen Hoods, Skating Sontags, Scarfs, and Wool Bed Blankets.
- SPECIAL NOTICE: A notice from Hoyt, Pierce & Co. regarding their general agency for various brands of goods.
- FREIGHT ADDED: A note from M. H. Minniger & Co. about shipping costs.
- STORY & CO.: An advertisement for Story & Co., located at 12 Lake Street.
- AT OUR NEW YORK PRICE: A note about price levels from New York.
- PIANO FORTE: An advertisement for a piano forte, mentioning a first premium gold medal.
- HOYT, PIERCE & CO.: Another notice from Hoyt, Pierce & Co. about their services.
- W. BAUER: An importer of musical instruments.
- SKATES: An advertisement for DeBrame's Patent Skates.
- SEWING MACHINES: Large illustrations and descriptions of Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines, Florence Sewing Machines, and Howe Sewing Machines.
- ADVERTISERS: A list of various companies and individuals who placed ads in the paper.
- WE HAVE MONEY TO LEND: An advertisement for D. Olmsted & Co. offering loans at low rates of interest.
- UNITED STATES REVENUE STAMPS: Information about revenue stamps.
- TRADE BANK: An advertisement for United States Revenue Stamps.
- MERCHANTS' SAVINGS LOAN CAPITAL: An advertisement for Merchants' Savings Loan Capital, mentioning a capital of $100,000.
- H. DOOLITTLE: An advertisement for H. Doolittle, Banker and Dealer in Exchange.
- BANK OF AMERICA: An advertisement for the Bank of America, noting its history and services.
- H. WILLIAMS: An advertisement for H. Williams, Commissioner of Exchange.
- THE MERCHANTS, FARMERS AND MECHANICS SAVINGS BANK: An advertisement for the Merchants, Farmers and Mechanics Savings Bank, located at 22 Clark Street, Chicago.
- INCORPORATED IN 1861: An advertisement for the Bank of America, noting its incorporation in 1861.
- VAN VLECK & TUCKER: An advertisement for Van Vleck & Tucker, Bankers and Dealers in Exchange.
- GENERAL SECURITIES: An advertisement for General Securities, American Gold, Domestic Foreign Exchange.
- WRIGLEY & TYRRELL: An advertisement for Wright & Tyrrell, Notary Publics and Commissioners of Oaths.
- BANKING HOUSE OF CHAPIN, WHEELER & CO.: An advertisement for Chapin, Wheeler & Co., located at the corner of Lake and LaSalle Streets, Chicago.
- GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS: An advertisement for M. D. Chapman, President, Chapin, Wheeler & Co.
- DAVENPORT, ULLMANN & CO.: An advertisement for Davenport, Ullmann & Co., Bankers and Dealers in Exchange.
- J. W. DREXEL & CO.: An advertisement for J. W. Drexel & Co., Bankers and Brokers.
- THE BANK OF MONTREAL: An advertisement for the Bank of Montreal, established in 1817.
- AGENCY AT CHICAGO: An advertisement for the A. G. Agency, located at 42 South Clark Street, Chicago.
- EASTERN AND STERLING EXCHANGE: An advertisement for Eastern and Sterling Exchange.
- ADVANCES ON STORAGE RECEIPTS: An advertisement for Advances on Storage Receipts.
- GILMAN, SON & CO.: An advertisement for Gilman, Son & Co., Bankers, located at 47 Exchange Place, New York.
- BAGS: An advertisement for Bags, Baggages, and Trunks.
- CORN EXCHANGE: An advertisement for Corn Exchange.
- HART, ASTEN & CO.: An advertisement for Hart, Asten & Co., Manufacturers of Bags.
- BAGS!: An advertisement for Bags.
- REAL ESTATE FOR SALE: An advertisement for Real Estate for Sale.
- CO-PARTNERSHIP: An advertisement for Co-Partnership.
- W. D. HOUGHTELING: An advertisement for W. D. Houghteling, Produce Commission Merchant.
- CO-PARTNERSHIP: An advertisement for Co-Partnership.
- DISSOLUTION: An advertisement for Dissolution.

The page is filled with many more small ads, notices, and legal announcements typical of 19th-century newspapers.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE

SUNDAY, JANUARY 14, 1861.

THE CITY.

WEDNESDAY BACK TO VICTORY.—The 10th Illinois Cavalry, recently recruited by the 11th Ill. Cavalry, returned this morning at 6 p.m.

MARSHAL.—The Marshal of Chicago will pass through the city about 8 o'clock this afternoon, en route for Cairo. The office will close at the Bridge House.

SAINT JOHN GOSPEL.—Our readers should remember—and not upon the remembrance of old days of reserved seats for "Gospel" services—this morning at Higgin's Tabernacle.

NOT THAT MAN.—Mr. John Brown, a painter and printer, opened up his studio to show that it was not himself but another Shamus who was convicted of vagrancy at the Police Court on Friday.

MOVING PORTAL OVERTHROWN.—Collier Haven, the author of 100 poetical pieces, which he will pay out in the course of time, commanding that (Monday) evening, will materially relieve the small charge on-harmament of society.

GUN WHICH ACCUSED A COMMANDER.—Gen. White of this city, who has recently been appointed to command the troops of the district of the Illinois River, and of the "Union" forces there. He will leave here this evening for his new field of operations.

THE PARADE.—We learn that the first detachment of the Arkansas Post prisoners, five hundred in number, will march in this city this (Monday) evening, and will arrive on Tuesday morning. About 4,000 are expected.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVAL.—The annual Festival of the Chicago & St. Louis Hospital is to be held at the Bridge House, on Thursday evening. Festive dress will be worn, and the usual scenes of loyalty toward the Government, in honor of the dead, will be enacted. Let their voices sing out in the North! Let the voices of such a general organization of men of all ages, in favor of the Government, be heard in every church, and in every place of assembly, commanding the attention of all.

THE CHICAGO ORGANIZATION.—The service of the "Christian World," which is the official organ of the organization of ministers of the Christian Church, will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, on Sunday evening, at 7.30 p.m.

THE CHICAGO CATHOLIC CHURCH.—The regular monthly meeting of the Union of Catholic Women, which is the representative body of the Catholic Church, will be held on Monday evening, at 7.30 p.m., at the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Washington and Clark streets, commanding at 7 o'clock.

PROGRESSIVE.

The time for the redemption of sealed postage stamps is over, and the mailmen have been less than waste paper of the dirtiest description. The public will still be their adversary, of course, and the standing of the management may improve.

SOILED STAMPS.—The time for the redemption of sealed postage stamps is over, and the mailmen have been less than waste paper of the dirtiest description. The public will still be their adversary, of course, and the standing of the management may improve.

CORPORATION.—In our notice of the Democratic pow-wow at Bryan Hall, alluding to the time when we were there from abroad, "the heavy gun" of the party, the means of one of them, a correspondent seems to fear.

THE REV. J. H. MOORE.—Rev. Moore is a very great man, and a true son of the Liberty. No truer or purer patriot lives than he.

DR. K. A. ANDREWS.—He was of the 1st Illinois Artillery, was resigning his position and returned to this city, where he will resume his professional duties, which have to do with the care of invalids. Some few months ago he was an army surgeon. His skillful services have attended the sick, and accomplished more real good than Dr. Andrews.

DR. JAMES HOWARD.—This gentleman is now so well and favorably known for his great services in the cause of emancipation, and his courage displayed, that it is only necessary for us to call attention to the fact. As the Doctor's visit is likely to be short, all who desire to consult him should do so at once. We hope he will be amenable to his admirer and practical friend.

TUESDAY EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT.—In addition to the address by the editor of the "Western City" for the benefit of the Good Templars' Sons' Aid Society, at Metropole Hall, on Tuesday evening, it is announced that the choir of St. Peter's, under the leadership of W. D. Nunn, have generously consented to give their services on the occasion. This offer of the choir, intellectual and musical merits of the season.

THEATRE.—The truly great actress, Emma Weber, commences an engagement at Moyer's Theatre on Monday night—opposite "Lady Macbeth," supported by Mr. Wallack's Marchioness. The "Philadelphia Advertiser" says: "We are sorry to report from recent criticism, that Miss Weber must have been in Lady Macbeth, who, by some error, her sex, act, repeated what had been said to her by some of the critics. We have no doubt that she will be a success."

THE CASSIER-BARRAN ADULTERY CASE.—The news of the shooting of the wife, which was made in the vestry of the church, on the 17th of February, and only reported to the reporter, Rev. W. H. Hager, at 8 o'clock next morning, has now come to light. The children, who were staying together regularly—the children being a stick away from a lounge below. When the family moved here, in the 3d of April, it was discovered that they had seen. The father disclosed it, and one of the children, who made the same statement.

MISS DORR.—Miss Dorr, before marriage, was Elizabeth Corcoran. The certificate of marriage was produced, dated New York, Sept. 25, 1853. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. Quisen, Pastor of St. Peter's Church. The document was objected to by the court for defense, and subsequently ratified by the Court.

PARNASSUS.—Thos. B. Bryan, Esq. was on Friday last very ill, under the roof of the hospital, and in great bodily pain. He privately inquired, the gift of the officers of the four companies representing the Young Men's Christian Association, now at Camp Douglas, that a letter was sent to the court, the gift, it is understood, was to be given to the members of the Minors to present him with a token mark of their appreciation of the many services he had rendered them in aiding to remove that which was then, otherwise, the apprehension of the removal of the Minors. The officers of the Y.M.C.A. have conferred their gift upon most courteous gentlemen and their families, and the accompaniment of a few words of cordial thanks, and an offer prior to the Plaudits of the Minors, and an offer prior to the Plaudits of the Minors.

PARNASSUS.—Thos. B. Bryan, Esq. was on Friday last very ill, under the roof of the hospital, and in great bodily pain. He privately inquired, the gift of the officers of the four companies representing the Young Men's Christian Association, now at Camp Douglas, that a letter was sent to the court, the gift, it is understood, was to be given to the members of the Minors to present him with a token mark of their appreciation of the many services he had rendered them in aiding to remove that which was then, otherwise, the apprehension of the removal of the Minors. The officers of the Y.M.C.A. have conferred their gift upon most courteous gentlemen and their families, and the accompaniment of a few words of cordial thanks, and an offer prior to the Plaudits of the Minors, and an offer prior to the Plaudits of the Minors.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.

THE OLD LADY HOME.—A Reservoir of November, 1860, a few persons not together in this city to consider the expediency of establishing a Home for Aged and Indigent Females. After a full discussion, it was unanimously decided to organize and to form a society, and a committee was appointed to nominate a board of officers. At a subsequent meeting the Committee on Nominations reported a nomination, which the Committee also reported, and their nominations were concurred in by the Board.